Aynsley-
High School is over! We did it and did it right and were finished. But now we have 4 years of college. That's a long time though I guess. I'm so stoked that your going to Longwood with me and we have a 4 year party to prom. That made the chance to go High School worth it. Wow... prom night was a party! I hope we can keep hanging out all summer and see ya around. Robert 431-0163

What More Can You Ask 4?

Students have enjoyed many good times together while anticipating new adventures. With each school year, they were given the opportunity to accomplish various tasks. Spending time with friends, working hard in school, going to sporting events and participating in clubs allowed time to enjoy together. So, really, what more can you ask for?

In the appropriate gear, Travis Farrell, Kristen Hawley, and Taber Carpenter practice their presentation. The girls were dressed up for a chemistry project.

Huddling together, Katie Gunter, Carley Brennan, Sharon Arnold, Paige Young, Lauren Roberts, Meghan Camp, and Preya Vyas attempt to get warm. The girls spent a lot of time together in and out of school.

Giving each other a big hug, Michele Patterson and local children show their affection . These children were from a town in Brazil Michele visited for a Mission trip during the summer.

Rehearsing with the quartet, Jamie Smith performs on his cello. Jamie attended the New York University Chamber Program during the summer.

Flying high, Sonia House performs a stunt for during an after school practice for the pep rally. The band and orchestra rehearsed their routine on the field that same afternoon.

Student Life

School wasn't just about classes and homework, but included the activities one did for their school and community. It was about volunteering and learning to help those in need. And yet it was also about the fun students had with friends in school as well as during the summer. Those events affected how students grew to learn about their role in life.

Taking a break, several Young Life campaigners smile for the cameras. These students spent the night in Sandbridge enjoying the annual retreat.

Sharing each other's company, these juniors anticipate the beginning of the dance. Caroline Morse, Matthew Morse, and Michael Camp enjoyed being with their friends during the Ring Dance.

To the most gangsta white girl, we have had some good times in both public speaking + government. Remember those times and me. Good luck Tiffany.

Using their football skills, Drew Shortt and C.J. Weddle help push a tree back in place. Megan Glaves called on Drew and C.J. for their strength after Hurricane Isabel.

Volunteering, Jessica Guiton and Michael Fournier display their enthusiasm. They performed as part of the puppet team for the "Sidewalk Celebration" for at-risk neighborhoods.

Remembering her younger years, Amy Keltner plays at Chuckie Cheese's. Although she is an eleventh grader, Amy still enjoyed goofing around.

Are You Lost in the Moment?

The two most important events in a student's senior year were senior prom and graduation. The senior prom was held at the Norfolk Marriott on the thirty-first of May. The theme was 'Lost in the Moment'. According to Kerri-Jean Carter, "It was absolutely beautiful. I definitely got 'Lost in the moment.'" All of the seniors enjoyed having one last hurrah before they had to say good-bye. On Friday June 13, the seniors took their last step as high schoolers, and their first step into the future. It was a bittersweet moment for many students. They were happy to be going to college, but sad to be leaving their family and friends.

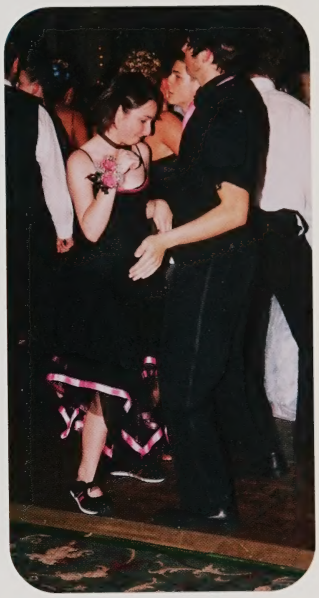
Taking a break during the electric slide, Kaitlin Spiro and Nick Dodson discuss their after-prom plans. Kaitlin and Nick were known for breaking it down on the dance floor.

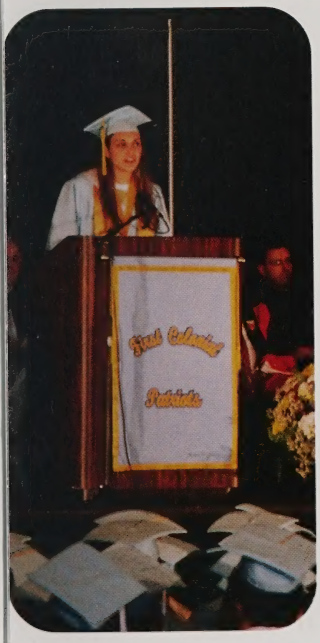
The seniors dress from head to toe in blu and gold, and await to hold their hig school diplomas. This moment has bee anticipated ever since the students en tered high school.

Over the loud music of prom, Jenny Yorgey's date whispers sweet nothings in her ear. The gorgeous couple really had a wonderful time at such an everlasting event.

As the senior class is applauding the valedictorian, they imagine the long journey to college ahead of them. The proud Patriots had a magnificent night of memories.

In pink and black, Kasey Flowers and her perfectly matching date dance the night away on such a thrilling night. They knew how to have fun on the once-in-a-lifetime evening.





With a 4.4 G.P.A., Molly Farrel, the valedictorian gives a moving speech, touching subjects from volleyball wins to her mother guiding her through life. She attended Randolph Macon College fall of 2003, and loved the new experience.

Before leaving for dinner at Castaldi's, Wes Payne and Michle Smith, Kirk Scifres and Ashley Kautter, Micah Henson and Deborah Dinardo, Steven Summs and Paige Miller, Jeff Pfeiffer and Paige Hardee, and Gwaltney Wright and Kelly Bern take time for a memorable photo shoot. With a delicious dinner and a fun-filled dance, the couples were definitely head over heals for each other.

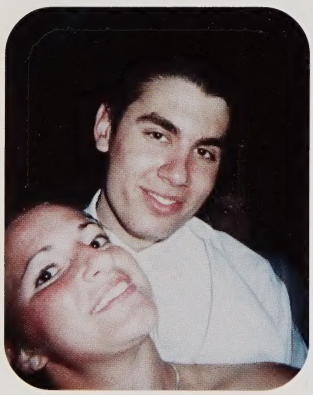
Rocking out on the dance floor, Doug Stumborg and Cailin Davis shake their groove thing. Doug has been known to boogie like Fred Astaire.



Dallying before the many cameras documenting their Junior Prom, Andrew Patterson and Lindsey Hosek hold each other closely. The couple enjoyed dinner at Alexander's by the Bay before the dance.

Huddling close, Rachel Wooten, Micque Parker, and Taylor Watrous mug for the photographer. The three girls were very close and did everything together.

Standing on the steps and posing for their parents, Justin Throckmorton and Laura Boettcher embrace. They had a magical night together.

Aynsley - WOW. what times we've had - I'm really going to miss your craziness! - FC will die suck w/out you, it will be boring I'm so proud that you didn't hit me w/ the Ball EVERY game this year! Just Remember "Head, Shoulders, weenis, Ch

How's The City Night Life?

Crushing together, Patricia Old, Allison Dobson, Ben Porter, Katy Turner, and Megan Glaves give a big grin. Ben loved having four beauties draped over him.

Hanging out before Ring Dance, C.J. Weddle and Rachael Lang flaunt their formal attire. Their debonair clothing fit the night's theme to a "T".

Ring Dance was a beautiful evening, complete with bright stars in the sky, which were still visible amidst the city lights. The night's theme was "A Night In the City," so the stars were a fitting backdrop. Most juniors, and even many other people from other classes, were in attendance. After eating dinner at the Duck Inn, Patricia Old danced the night away, while snagging parts of other peoples' attire, namely David Christenson's bow tie. Ashley Fick's memories of the magical event were vivid and will be "cherished for the rest of my life". All in all, Ring Dance was an affair that remains unforgettable.

Pouting pretty for their parents' cameras, Jill Robinson, Bethany Cecchini, and Vicki Rabchuk strut their stuff. The best friends were excited to be attending Ring Dance together.

Sparkling and radiant in their gala gear, Christi Gibson, Lauren Doucette, Megan Camp, Paige Young, and Preya Vyas beam for the camera. All five girls enjoyed sharing special moments throughout the school year.

GOOD LUCK @ Longwood & call me this summer!

Summer Fun

How's The Weather?

With the end of school came two and a half months for students to go on vacations or just be plain old silly. It was a never ending list of activities that students took part in during the summer. From Young Life camp to roller coasters to hot beaches with clear water, summer fun was the best. Some students traveled out of the country while others traveled within the country. Others had a summer job or took classes in summer school in order to graduate early. It wasn't important if students did not do anything over the summer because summertime was a vacation itself.

Riding on Apollo's Chariot at Bush Gardens, Ives Parent, Kailin Leonard, Lynna Seipel, and Libby Summy do the YMCA. They screamed and laughed on the roller coaster but most of all they had a blast.

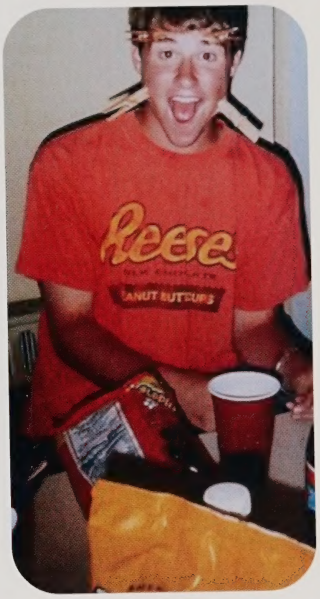
Going out in Minneapolis to exert some energy, Micque Parker and her junior Olympic volleyball teammates explore the city. They found it entertaining to be locked in a huge bird cage after their volleyball match.

Trying to entertain his friends, Mike Rosemond attempts to pinch as many clothespins to his face as he could. He made his friends laugh until their stomachs hurt.



Suiting up for the obstacle course at the Young Life Camp, Kendall Couch and Amanda Greer laugh in the face of fear. They overcame many setbacks however, they completed the obstacle course to their best ability.

Enjoying a beautiful sunset in Boat Key, Florida, Weston Townsend and Adrienne Randall embrace each other. They had an exciting road trip with lots of memories to share.

Lounging on a gigantic boulder, Christi Gibson poses for the camera. She had a fantastic time relaxing in Aruba.

During the hurricane, the water rose and flooded many streets and yards. Ann Marie Wilson's yard was underwater because the Lynnhaven Inlet received a great amount of rain.

Enjoying the aftermath of Isabel, Rachael Lang walks her dog and looks at the damage. Even though the day Isabel hit was dreary, the next few days were filled with perfect weather.

Blocking the roads, Rolley Davis' tree fell onto the streets. Many trees and debris blocked the streets all across Hampton Roads for days.

Along with fallen trees and branches, many signs and marquees were affected by the huge gusts of winds. This sign by Kingston Elementary was almost pushed over by the winds.

How Hard Were You Hit?

Hurricane Isabel

laying in a tree, Troy Harrell took ad-antage of the debris left behind. Be-ause of the strong winds, fallen trees ere everywhere.

Fallen debris and trees did a number on this house in Kings Grant. Unfortunately, many homes were severely damaged as a result of Isabel.

One of the worst storms in 100 years, Isabel hit the eastern coast on Wednesday, September 16. The Tidewater area felt the effect of Isabel on Thursday. With close to 90 percent of power loss between northeastern North Carolina and southeastern Virginia, Isabel left a definite mark. Winds reaching up to 80m.p.h. and gusts of 100m.p.h., Virginia and North Carolina received a great amount of damage. Many fallen trees and branches fell on nearby houses and buildings. Flooding also damaged much of the land, especially land near water.

Hit by rains and winds, this house received the worst conditions of the storm. It took many months of clean-up and construction for residents to recover from the hurricane.

Trying to push through the deep water, this car attempts to make it home. Many cars stalled when they tried to drive through the flooded roads.

Spirit Week

Who's Got Spirit?

During the five days of Spirit Week, the student body had a chance to show off their Patriot pride. Each day of the week had a different theme which allowed students to escape from the everyday routine of school. The days included Sports Day, Twins Day, Wacky Wednesday, Tropical Thursday, and FC Spirit Day. No matter what the occasion, the students always joined in the fun. The homecoming game against Kempsville was a wonderful end to the week. All the students were very enthusiastic about participating in the homecoming events. Even the teachers went out of their way to display their school spirit.

Showing off their homecoming float, the seniors display their Patriot pride. The seniors were always quick to get involved in activities.

Painted in blue and gold, these freshm show off their school spirit at the hom coming game. Despite the frigid te peratures, the boys insisted on suppo ing their school.

As a tradition at the pep rally, Will Davis struts past the First Colonial cheerleaders. Coach Scarborough called out each football player one by one.

Gathering around Mr. William Craig, Carin Andrews, Carley Brennan, and Paige Hardee display their outfits on FC Spirit day. Everyone was very impressed with the amount of school spirit shown.

Dressed as twins Kayla Michaels and Kendall Couch pose for the camera. These Patriots were excited to participate in Spirit Week.

Decked out in blue and gold from head to toe, David Christenson shows his FC pride. You can always count on David to display his school spirit.

Waiting to perform their newest dance routine, the Dance Team enjoys the pep rally. The Dance Team got to perform at the pep rally to show support for their school.

At the homecoming game, Matthew Morse and Justin Stanley cheer for the Patriot football team. Matthew and Justin were at every game and always cheered the loudest.

Holding each other tight, King and Queen, John Hawley and Erika Jones show off their crowns. They were so highly thought of by their peers that they were elected king and queen.

Riding on the junior class float, Laura Beottcher waves to the crowd as she passes by the stands. Juniors worked their hardest trying to make their float to show off at the Homecoming game.

After a long night of dancing Alison Jordan and Jessica Lewis still have enough time to stop and pose for the camera. The Homecoming dance was a fun event to attend.

Escorted by his sister Kate Gordon, Rob Gordon hurries down the field. Rob and Kate were in the wrong spot in line when his name was called, so they had to hurry up to get to the correct spot.

How Was the Patriot Bowl?

Following tradition, the cheerleaders dance to the fight song after the football team scores. The crowd excitedly joined in by clapping along to the beat.

Escorted by King Neptune, Princess Kerri-Jean Carter waves to the crowd. Kerri-Jean's sparkling tiara matched perfectly with her brilliant smile.

Keeping the tradition alive, the 2003 Homecoming theme was "Patriot Bowl". The excitement of the night was beating Kempsville and finally learning who was selected as king and queen. During the game, the stands were filled with high spirits thanks to the SCA members and the cheerleaders who worked hard to keep the crowd revved up. The Homecoming Parade was filled with spectacular floats; one from each class. The Dance on Saturday night finished the week with a bang making Homecoming 2003 definitely a night to remember.

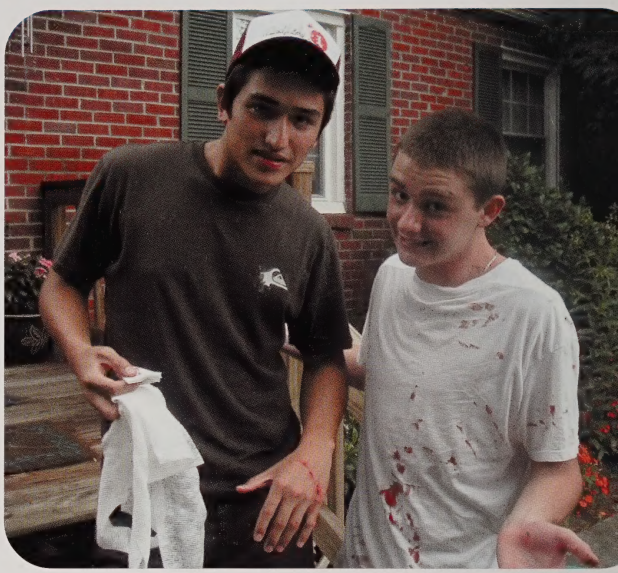
Posing for a final shot before leaving, these best friends are ready for their sophomore Homecoming. Lauren Wright, Lauren Figari, Lindsay Caldwell, Katie Ross, and Michelle Carmines had a great time dancing all night long.

Standing around SCA sponsor Mr. David Frasier, the Homecoming Court of 2003 smiles with much happiness. Tom Minor, Afton Pritcet, Doug Stumbourg, Rachel Refo, Rob Gordon, Carin Andrews, Erika Jones, John Hawley, Brandi Hargette, Travis Peszko, Paige Hardee, Tyler Brown, Brittany Schaefer, and Ryan McQueeney were honored to be on the Court.

Best Friends

What Are Friends For?

The description of a best friend was someone you knew you could depend on whenever help was needed. A true friend would sprint down the road after a passing ambulance because your hand was sliced wide open, and they were always there to chill and hang out with you. Best friends knew how to keep secrets, and protected you from others. They knew just how to calm you down when you were a little rowdy. The best memories were made throughout high school with your friends that will never be forgotten. So what are friends for? They're for experiencing the bad times, but mostly the good times.



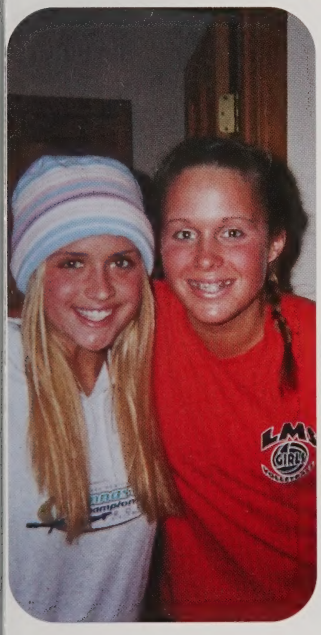
After slicing open his hand, Bobby Mathieson helps his friend Byron Davenport by transporting him to the emergency room. Bobby learned the hard way that it was not so smart to play with knives.

Holding each other tightly, Britta Clayton and Laura Laukaitis put on th biggest smiles. Brittany and Laura w always seen together in and out of sch

Showing the camera their pearly whites Melanie Snedeker and Meredith Eley pose while down in Hatteras, North Carolina. During spring break, they rented a house and rocked out for a week straight.

Finding their way to the Mexican resturant Guadalahara, Kendall Couch and Kayla Michaels look forward to a great meal. In the Hilltop area, students had their choice of a variety of eating places, but Kendall and Kayla took advantage of one of the best.

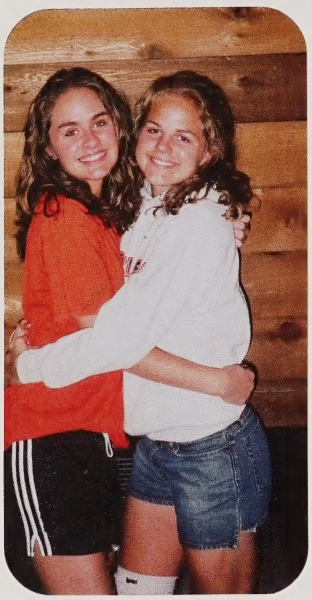
Giving each other a big hug, Vicki Rabchuk and Bethany Cecchini display their friendship. Vicki and Bethany have been best friends since their freshman year.



Trying to keep warm on a cold day, Maura Checchio and Brittany Watrous embrace each other. On winter days the two enjoyed playing in the snow together.

Arm in arm, Lindsey Caldwell, Katie Ross, Michelle "Mini" Carmines, and Emma Biron pose on the couch for picture. Always together, these four enjoyed everyday with each other.

While soaking up some sun, Chelsea Boone and Tiffany Robinson take a break from their trip to Key West, Florida. The girls made sure not to miss out on shopping, tanning, and enjoying the beautiful waters of the Keys.



Showing off their similarities, the Refo's present a mirror image of each other. Rachel and Catherine Refo were incredibly close to one another and enjoyed many activities together.

With absolutely no similarity in sight, Jillian and Alex Rowley are indeed siblings. These two enjoyed the art of annoying one another as did most every brother and sister.

Clowning around, the Engle sisters share in some summer fun. Stacey and Stephanie were best friends and shared many special moments throughout the years.

Do We Look Alike?

Embracing, Kristen and John Hawley are ready to head off to school. Kristen and John had a picture taken every first day of school since kindergarten.

During a summer afternoon, Jennifer and Tiffany Ford play together outside. Flying kites was their favorite activity growing up.

Oftentimes, siblings would look very much alike, but no wonder coming from the same parents. Brothers, sisters and sometimes even cousins not only looked similar, but would also become very good friends. They spent time together working and playing and sharing deep dark secrets. From family vacations to shopping sprees, these relatives knew that they would be together through thick and thin. And sometimes their similarities allowed them to play games on others.

Even though they are several years apart, Chelsea and Christi Gibson look very much alike. These sisters have developed a close relationship while growing up.

Swinging on the hammock, Brittany Baer and Annelise Hudson enjoy a sunny day. These cousins have been inseperable since birth.

People

Who's Who?

People from all walks of life made up the population o the school. Freshmen learned the "ropes" and adjusted t new found freedom. Sophomores were glad not to be th bottom of the rung, and juniors enjoyed their elevated statu of almost being a senior. But senior emotions went fro
"this is my last year of high school", to feeling sad that the would be leaving friends and finally growing up.

Always showing their affection for one another, fraternal twins Caroline and Matt Morse give a big hug. Now seniors, Caroline and Matt are not only close but share orchestra and AP Music Theory classes.

Giving a display of her beastly strength, Rachel Refo carries Rob Gordon outside a cabin in Colorado. They both were in Colorado with many other people from Young Life during the summer.

After making their purchase, Heather Rutledge, Samantha Trost, and Ashley Crow show off their matching outfits. The girls enjoyed spending summer time and displaying their Hooter's T-shirts.

Goofing around, Mike Rosemond, Spencer Johnston, Kyle Ramstad, and Matt Carmines do a dance with their "hats." These seniors enjoyed finding ways to be silly.

Coming in after a great set, Steven Owen is pumped up from his performance. "Steve-O" enjoyed participating in the First Colonial Surfing Competition held at the Virginia Beach oceanfront.

Administration

Standing behind the greeter's desk made by Mr. Maynard West of Technical Education, Lionel Jackson, Carol Anthony, Dr. Hazel Jessee, Gail Chuy, and Carlton Hill smile for their annual picture. The administrators made a concerted effort to work with students and parents striving for positive results throughout the year.

Always concerned with t best interest of the students, t Administrative Team plann and coordinated their effo working to assure all studer were afforded the best edu tional opportunities. Testing, tendance, discipline and pub relations were foremost on th agenda for teachers and s dents. Two very important go that were accomplished w improved attendance and rais SOL scores that were even high than last year. The team kn that their guidance would b efit the young people as th graduated and someday join the work force.

Teacher of the Year

Earning a Bachelor of Science in Secondary Education from Old Dominion University in 1987 and a Master of Science in Mathematics with a Computer Science Option from Ohio University in 1990, Jeanne Noll was selected by her peers for Teacher of the Year. In high school and college, she realized that helping others understand difficult math concepts gave her great satisfaction, and so she decided to change her major from computer science to education. Noll remarked, "I firmly believe that all students can be successful, and I will not settle for anything less than a 100% commitment to excellence." Her future plans are to move into a position where she can affect wider change, perhaps on the district or state level. She believes that her knowledge and experience with the math curriculum, assessment tools, and educational theory are gifts she can use to help other educational professionals reach a higher level of success with students.

New Police Officer

Having been in law enforcement for eight years, Officer Cassondra Wilburn was drawn to this vocation by the desire to give assistance to citizens and to help improve the lives of the community's population. She chose to work in a high school setting because she enjoys working with teenagers and believes she can make a difference. Although Officer Wilburn earned a degree in Therapeutic Recreation with minors in Psychology and Sociology, when asked if a college degree was necessary for this position, she responded, "No, it's not necessary, but you have to be twenty-one and go through the police academy". She explained that one of the worst parts of her job was the unexpected, the other was having to attend court so often for long periods of time. The best part of her job was watching students improve to make a positive change in their lives.

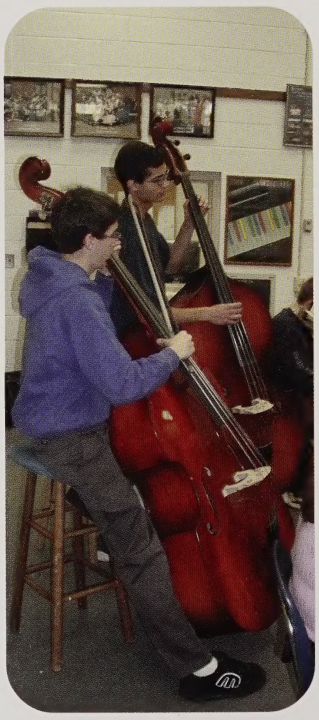
Orchestra

While rehearsing the Sibelius selection, Sean Lee and Andrew Snyder concentrate on their part. Sean and Andrew were excited about playing in Carnegie Hall the first of April.

In an unusual rendition, the violas add pizazz utilizing the staccato technique. The viola section contributed depth and richness of color to the sound.

Improvising during a jazz selection called "Skylife", Adam Hill plays his sixteen bars. This song was by Balakrishnan a member of the Turtle Island Quartet.



After counting out fifty-two bars of music, Spencer Johnston and Alejandro Rosa finally get to play. Spencer and Alejandro have been playing string bass since elementary school, and both plan to continue on into adulthood.

As first and second chair violinists, Justin Stanley and Nicole Dadio set the sta for the other orchestra members. Justine and Nicole swapped places throughc year after auditioning for first chair.

Navy Junior Reserve Officers Training Corp

Students in the NJROTC program distinguished themselves by earning the title of cadet or officer. Not only did the cadet learn Naval knowledge and skills, they were also given the opportunity to gain self-confidence, pride, and discipline. The cadet was dedicated to the three Core Values that shape what NJROTC and the Navy itself stand for: HONOR, COURAGE, and COMMITMENT. The NJROTC unit competed against several different schools up and down the East Coast throughout the school year. Under the leadership of CWO4 Frank Zurschmit and SCPO Steven Fields, the cadets were encouraged to work effectively as a team, participate in community service, and maintain high academic scores. These two instructors provided each of the cadets with the advice, knowledge, and examples to gain the qualities they had to learn in order to become distinguished individuals.

During each of the home football games, the NJROTC unit presents the colors. Cadets Robert Dodson, Ashley Reisner, and Alfonso Piacentini followed the commands of Joshua Moto.

Raising the American Flag, these cadets respectfully remember September 11th. Each fall since 9/11/01, cadets commemorated the murderous attacks by marching with pride in front of the school.

Commanded by cadet Alan Lane, the cadets of the Armed Standard Drill compete at the York Drill Meet. The Armed Standard Drill unit competed at many drill meets, increasing the level of difficulty each time.

During the Homecoming half time , these cadets march and provide a sword arch for the Homecoming Court. The NJROTC unit has participated as an integral part at this event every year.

Who's Offsides?

Having a great season was just the least one could say about the Lady Patriots of the Varsity Field Hockey team. It was a team that amazed the crowds everytime they played, especially by beating Kempsville 1-0 in over time, and holding up with Princess Anne to double overtime only to tie 1-1. Their key starters included Taber Carpenter, Maura Checcio, Laura Kupke, and Melanie Snedeker. Ali Mayo also assisted in the many wins. Led by Andrea Aikin, the girls advanced to the quarterfinals.

Coach Wendy Gulden

Rushing against the oppposing team, Cailin Davis forces the ball up the field. Cailin proved she could intimidate the opposition and get the ball advanced.

Fooling the competition, Ali Mayo fakes left with the ball. As a returning sophomore, Ali was a key player throughout the season.

Preparing to guard the goal, Lena Siepal gears up in hopes of a shut-out. Lena and the whole team worked together to return home with a win over Kellam.

Watching her back swing, Amanda Windt follows through with a strong shot. Amanda was a player who consistently found her way past the opposition's goalie.

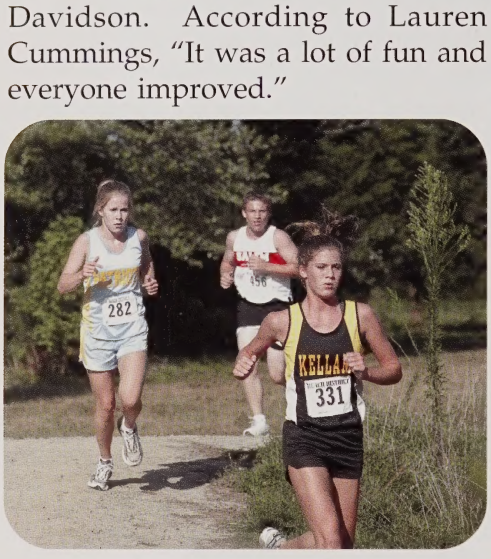
Girls' Cross Country

With those long hours of practice preparing for competitions, the Girls' Cross Country team stuck it out starting their season strongly and ending with a 7-3 record. The team also had fun times by having pasta parties before and after every meet. The Most Valuable Player and Coach's Award went to Leeanna Striker and Kirsten Davidson. According to Lauren Cummings, "It was a lot of fun and everyone improved."

Keeping ahead of their opponents, Sarah Ezell and Halley Sullivan work hard to finish the race. Sarah and Halley were the two strongest contenders every opposing team dreaded facing.

Trying to maintain a steady pace, Sa Ezell, Melinda Lackore, and Hal Sullivan keep each other company running in pairs. Sarah, Melinda a Halley learned how important to succ it was to keep each other motivated.



Attempting to catch up to the runner in front of her, Kirsten Davidson exerts a little extra energy. Kirsten knew it was important to keep a nice stride and finish hard at the end of the race.

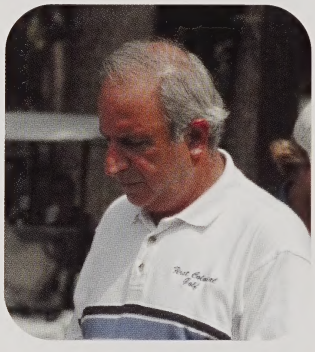
Am I Under Par?

The Golf team took first place at the Bowcreek Invitational, lost one meet during the season, and ended by taking third place in the District. Coach Leo Anthony, and team captain Rob Gordon provided strong leadership for the many newcomers to the team. "This was my first year playing for a golf team; it was a great experiance," says Brenden Flatley, a junior. But this sport was also a sibling sport, as evidenced by Jon and Kevin Thompson, as well as Nelson and Ryan Adcock, and Shane Hoes who followed in the footsteps of his big brother Colby.



Coach Leo Anthony

Watching the path of his putt, Brendan Flatley hopes for a success. Flatley was know for his accuracy on the greens, and his ability to concentrate and take his time.

Focusing on his follow through, team captain Rob Gordon closely watches the direction of the ball. Rob was easily shut out the Landstown opponent keeping them from scoring.

Being careful to concentrate on his path of direction, James Dale decides how he will putt the ball. James had a good eye for knowing exactly where the ball had to go and how to get it there.

Watching the ball soar, John Meyerholtz hits a long drive. John consistently surprised his teammates with his accurate style and precision.

Boys Volleyball

How Was That Spike?

Starting out the season, the Boys Volleyball team showed they were strong and focused. The boys remained consistent throughout the season and ended with a record of 11-2. Uniting their talent to form an unstoppable force, the boys made it to the District Tournament where Kellam defeated them by one point. Ryan Arcese was the quarterback and setter, and with his leadership the boys confronted every team with the spirit of winning set firmly in their mind.

Coach Gary Hodges

After the ball is set, Tyler Brown spikes it catching the Kempsville Chiefs off guard. Tyler's first year on the team proved to be a very exciting one.

Laughing about the last unsuccessful play by Ocean Lakes, Ross Thomas and Winfield Whittington have fun exchanging comments Ross and Winfield also observed the various weaknesses before they entered the court.

Preparing for annihilation, Ryan Arcese sets the ball for Doug Stumborg. Doug served as a middle hitter throughout the season along with Ryan Arcese.

Fearlessly confronting the ball, Matthew Horan attempts to pulverize the sphere into the opposing team. Matt Horan's serve, equally as good as his defense, moved the team forward against the Kellam Knights.

What About That Stunt?

Pulling off a fantastic stunt at the District Competition, the Varsity Cheerleaders proved they could compete with the best. After the routine, each cheerleader felt confident and proud. The girls also enjoyed leading the crowds at football and girls and boys basketball games. They were glad to see the spirit at the away games where the Patriot parents sang the FC Fight Song, encouraging the cheerleaders to dance. Erin Dulik was awarded Most Improved, Megan Glaves was awarded Most Valuable Player, and Tiffany Patton received the Coach's Award.

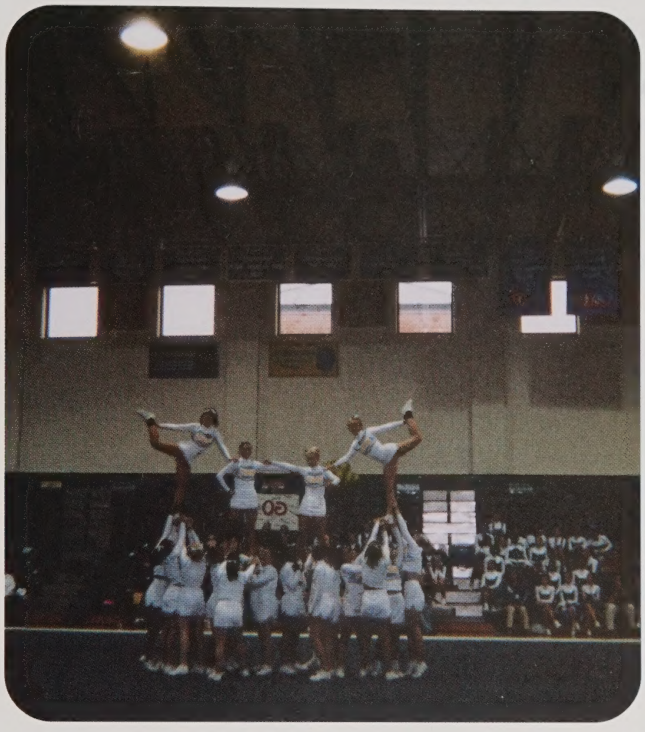
Dancing to the Patriot Fight Song, Amanda Greer and Lindsey Lucas keep the long time tradition alive. The same dance and song have been performed by the cheerleaders and band each time the Patriots score for many years.

Cheering loudly, Jillian Turner and Mallory Mobley tell the Patriot basketball team to "be aggressive." The girls had to make sure their spirits were high and their motions were together.



Ending the first half of their competition routine, the cheerleaders hit a pyramid. The girls practiced many long hours to accomplish their advanced stunts.

At a football game, Kelly Dao shows her spirit after performing a cheer. Kelly, a sophomore, was thrilled to make the Varsity team for the first time.

Junior Varsity Cheerleading

Beginning their practices in August with a new coach, Renee Hunter, the Junior Varsity Cheerleading team looked forward to a year filled with fun and hard work. During the school year, the girls spent their time cheering at football games, girls and boys basketball games, and wrestling matches. When the season ended in February, the cheerleaders considered all the extra hours had been well spent.

Hitting a "High-V" while stunting, Danielle Campbell and Maureen Mones perform to a cheer. The team choreographed certain stunts to go with some of the cheers.

Keeping up the crowd's spirits, the cheerleaders yell loudly hoping to everyone involved. The girls knew was their job to keep the crowd and football players energized.

Showing her spirit, Alicia Williams cheers for the Varsity Football team. Alicia and the JV cheerleaders enjoyed getting a turn at leading the crowd during the third quarter at the Homecoming game.

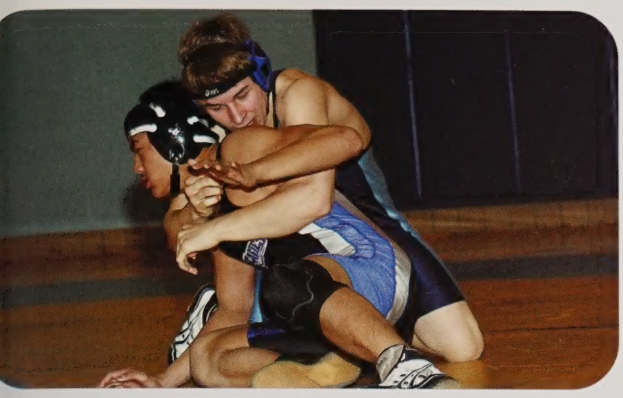
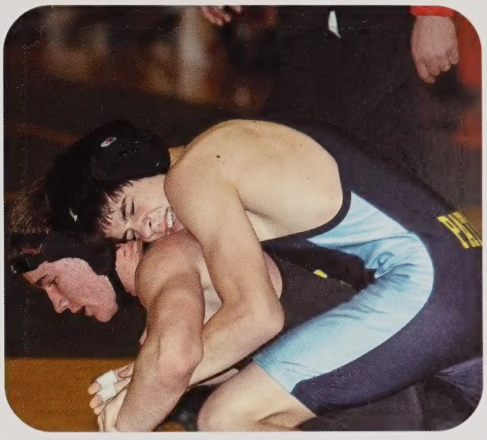
Junior Varsity Wrestling

Attacking the opposition, the JV Wrestlers displayed no fear and put all their heart into the match. Dirk Lynch had four pins in a row and won countless matches. Two freshmen, Kevin Thompson and Jesse Tyer, came out and dominated their weight classes. Also leading to a great season were Krys Stultz, Mike Fisher, and Marcus Perry. Coach Runzo defined this sport by stating, "Wrestling builds character."



erwhelming his opponent with quick ows of technique, Dirk Lynch out scores e Landstown Eagle. During the season rk proved himself to be a valuable ayer for the Varsity and JV teams.

Crossfacing his unfortunate foe, Jesse Tyer gains his back points as well as a win. Jesse showed his skills and quick reactions on the mat during every match.



Ready to strike, Krys Stultz awaits the whistle to pull a quick pin. Krys was a dedicated and determined wrestler who showed heart in every aspect of wrestling.

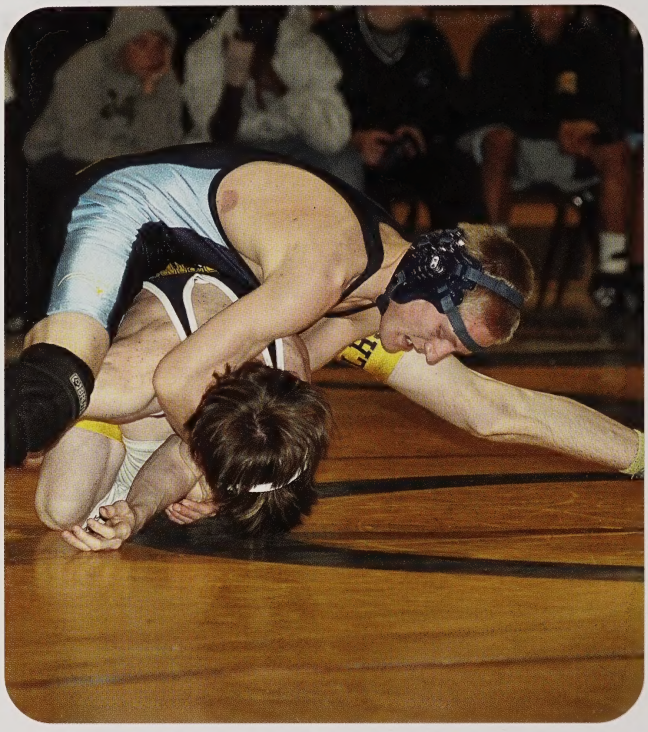
Putting the Landstown Eagle into a head lock, Keegan Vanauken rocks his opponent's world with a burst of tenacity. Keegan became an A-class Wrestler during his four years here.

Crunching this Eagle, Marcus Perry displays his beastly strength and incredible technique. Marcus was able to gain enough points to win the match.



Earning his back points, George Brown humiliates this Hornet in front of a home crowd. George had many wins during the season which made him a strong contender.

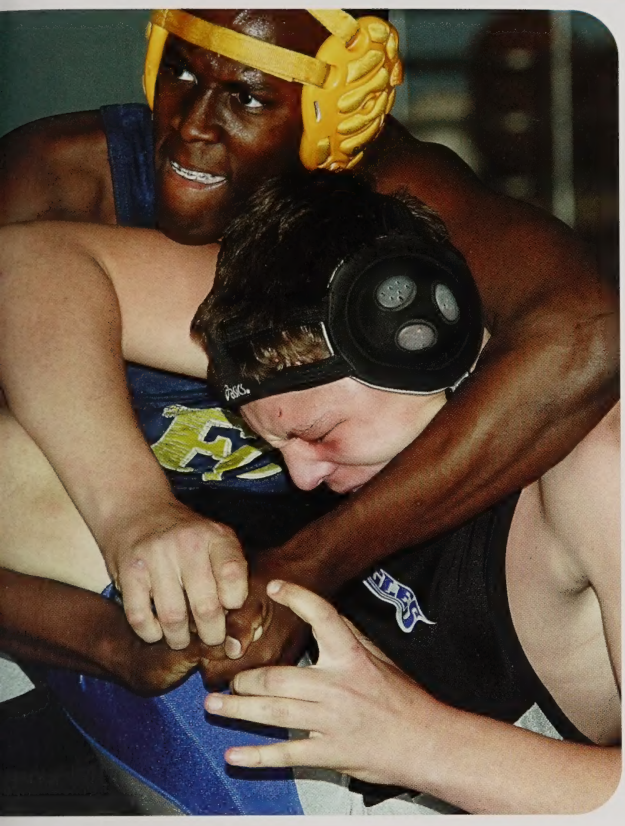
Varsity Wrestling

Are You Tough Enough?



"Face the Pain!" was the motto that helped the Varsity Wrestling team complete the season with a record of seventeen wins and ten losses. The most memorable moment of the season for Coach Chris Runzo was having three wrestlers- Aaron Peterson, John Barney, and Jimmy Mitchum- place in the Great Bridge Elite Classic. The Most Valuable Players were Jimmy Mitchum, Aaron Peterson, John Barney, and David Christenson, who proved they were tough enough.

Coach Chris Runzo

Rolling over his foe, David Christenson pins the Landstown Eagle with ease. Thoughout the season David proved he was a tough contender.

Indoor Track

What's My Time?

Sprinting through another outstanding season, the Outdoor Track team finished with a 3-3 record for the boys, and a 2-4 record for the girls. Leading the team to victory was Mike Barnett, while the entire team improved greatly over a short period of time. In the end, the girls came in seventh place, and the boys came in at an amazing fourth place. Coach Ben Kaminski and Coach Ja'ton Hines could not be any more proud of the team's performances this year, especially against the major rival, Cox High School. Way to go, Patriots!

Coach Ben Kaminski

Coming strongly out of the blocks, Laura Kupke starts her race. Although some runners chose not to use the blocks, Laura found it a much faster way to get a better and quicker push off.

Keeping a step ahead of the two Tallwood Lions, Kevin Cryan battles it out during the last lap. Long distance races required each contestant to maintain their endurance to the end.

Flying gracefully over the hurdle, Laura Kupke easily clears it at the Bayside meet. Laura competed in several events finding each to be a challenge.

Sprinting as hard and as fast as he can, Otis Williams tries to catch up with the other runners. Even though short distance matches could be difficult, Otis always managed to squeek it out in the end.

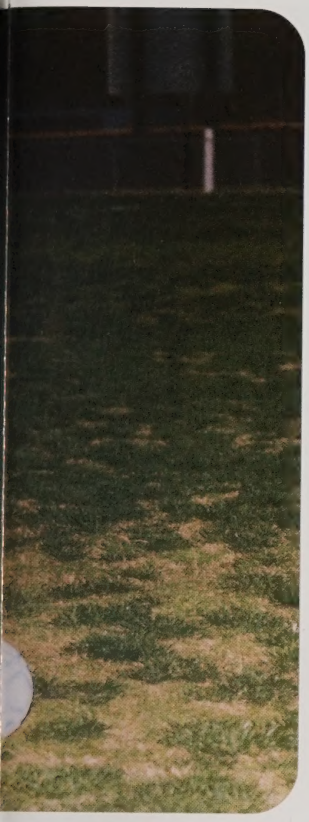
Varsity Boys Soccer

Who Made that Goal?

The Varsity Boys Soccer team had an incredible season with 6 wins, 4 ties, and 3 losses. The boys remained focused and strong with a "never-say-die" attitude, and an ongoing unity. Some of the key starters were Ryan McQueeney, Steven Youngblade, Kirk Scifres, Nathan Palmer, Jason Champion, and Ben Compton. The most exciting game was against Kempsville when the boys defeated the Chiefs for the first time in over a decade! Coach Matt Wallace responded, "The Kellam and Kempsville games were the best the boys had played".

Coach Matt Wallace

Thinking fast, Ryan McQueeney doesn't allow himself to be caught off guard. Ryan's quick moves kept the ball from the Cox player.



Spreading his massive wings, Ryan Moore prepares to plunge the ball down field. Ryan's great strength and speed allowed him to intimidate the opposition.

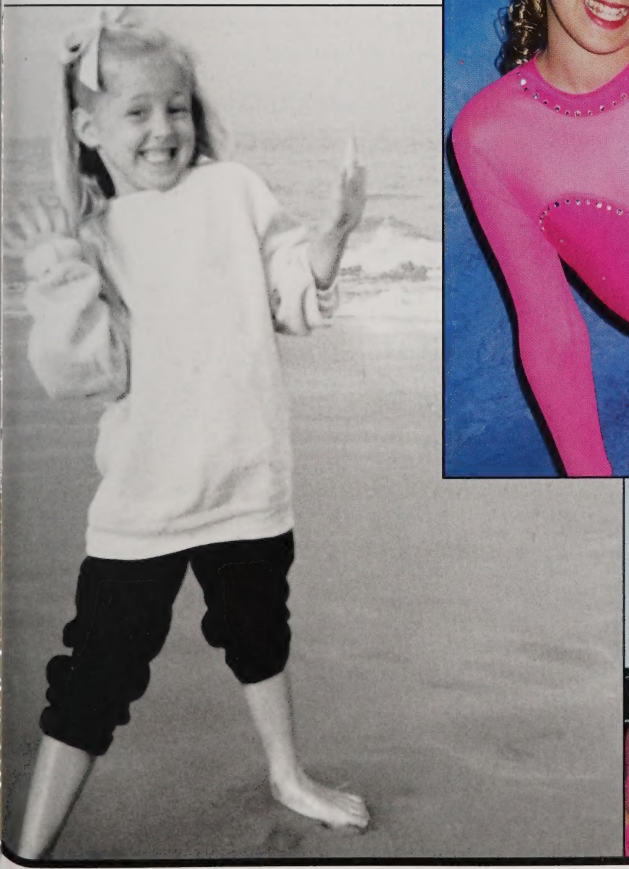
Laurmie,

For the light you've been
To your family and friends,
For the memories engraved
And the roads we have paved,
For the years we've shared
And the trials we've beared
For the laughter and the fun
For shining like the sun,
For all your hard work, the sweat and the tears
For just being you for all these years,
For your giggles and your smiles
For going all those extra miles,
For giving life your best
Our gratitude is endless.

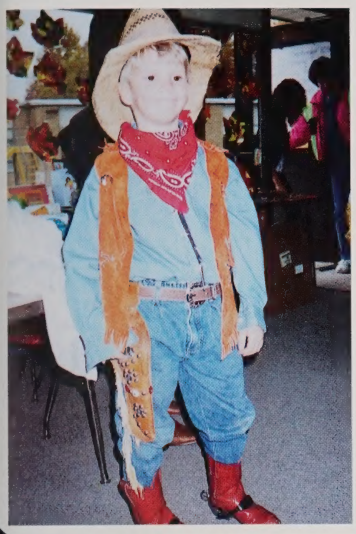
May your visions of success and happiness always be anchored in your heart.

We're really proud of you.
Congratulations.

We love you, Mom and Paw-Paw



Liebe Lauren,
Du bist wahrhaftig ein Segen des Himmels. Erhalte Dir Deinen Glauben und Deine persönlichen Wertvorstellungen. Laß nie jemanden Deinen Optimismus trüben. Du bist klug, schön, freundlich und eine sehr ausgeglichenen junge Dame. Wir sind stolz auf Dich und lieben Dich sehr.
In Liebe
Papa, Mama und Bret



Our son you have traveled countryside and to the beach,
You've always been close to us and within our reach.
Now your next phase is here to take you away,
All that you will learn will really make our day.
You will learn and grow and always share in fun,
We are always proud of you David our beloved son.
Garth Brooks wrote best, he sang to heart and mind,
"Don't you sit upon the shoreline
And say you're satisfied.
Choose to chance the rapids
And dare to dance the tide."
So David off you go with our love behind your sail,
Give life all your love and you'll never fail.

We Love You,
Mom, Dad, and Mike

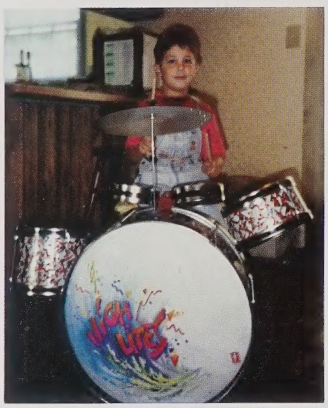
Your family is so proud of you.
You have grown to be an amazing person.
"DUKE"
We love you so much!! Congrats Baby!!

To my Son,

Here you stand before the rest of your life, ready to choose the path you will take. Ready to determine who you will be, what life you will live, and how you will live it. Every decision you make will urge you forward to the greatest expression of who you are.

As in all life you will be tested. Roadblocks will be placed before your path like a rat in a maze to test your wit, your ability to think on your feet, and most importantly, your clarity in knowing how to make the right choices. When these challenges come, remember their name. Call them out, face them head on, and know no matter how great an army they amass, you know the cheese at the end of the maze exists and with your strength and perseverence you will let no one or no thing say it is not there or that you cannot have it.



College is a time of great independence. It is like riding a bike without training wheels for the first time. Remember how fiercely you wanted that freedom from the security and comfort of those extra wheels that held you steady. Yet you pushed forward without their safety net and each time it appeared a fall was imminent you took a deep breath, straightened your posture, regained your balance, and continued on your way.

When you finally move into that dorm room at Embry-Riddle and leave the security of home, family, and friends behind remember how proudly you corrected your balance and feel the excitement of riding free for the first time again! You never know which hour, minute, or second will bring you the greatest moment of joy you will ever experience in your life. (Hint: It is usually shortly after the moment all hope is lost.)

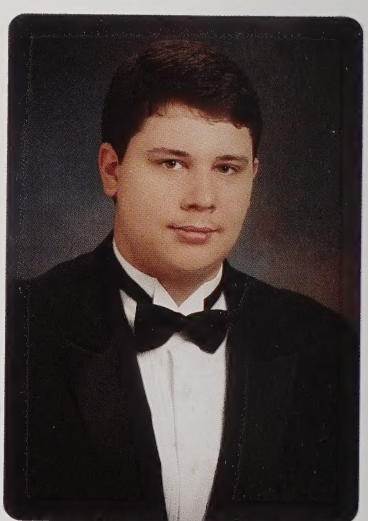
Remember all the nagging (and the "how to" articles your grandma sent you). You will understand their wisdom as time and experiences go by. Choose empathy instead of sympathy and kindness whenever it is an available option.

Wisdom, perseverence, and love: these are the gifts you have been given to reach your goals. I have brought you to the doorway of adulthood. The rest of your life and all your accomplishments are now left up to you. Do what you love, yet hurt no one - directly or indirectly; most importantly yourself.

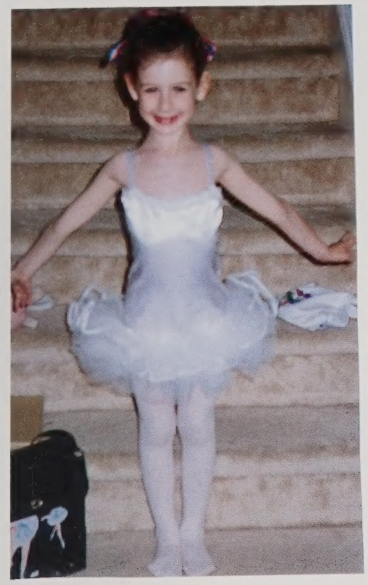
May you go forth and amaze the world with the very best of everything you are and everything you can be.

Love,

Mom



Timothy C. Smith



CONGRATULATIONS SHARON

Dear Catherine,

You have grown so fast from being a little girl into a beautiful young lady. Your parents are very proud of your accomplishments and all the hard work. To Mary, continue to work hard at FC, and follow your own path. Remember girls; it is your strengths, hopes, and positive attributes that will allow you to achieve any goal.

Love
Mom and Dad

Casey,

With each milestone you have achieved, you've made us proud. As this journey ends, a new one begins in college. We are proud of you.

We love you! Very much!

Love
Mom, Dad, and Kaitlin

You have reminded us how special we are
On this Christmas Day
We now know how precious life is
And how it can slip away

People take things for granted
In a flash they can disappear
Some of us will learn this lesson
And treasure each person throughout the year

Great kid and hard worker
Two jobs and going to school
You were on a mission
Life can be so cruel

We can still see that smile
The fact that people loved you so much
Made your life worthwhile

Some stars glimmer, some stars glow
You were a flash so bright
The joy you brought to all of us
Will guide us through the night

You were the happiness in your father's face
Your mother's crutch she so needed
You gave your sister and friends someone to look up to
You were not going to be defeated

The earth needs positive people
That we all can admire
Kristen, you were here for such a short time
And yet it did inspire

Parents to love their children
Friends to be real friends
Sisters to treasure that annoying sibling
And to do whatever we can

So at this time we say no good-byes
We shed tears and show we care
We'll all be together in the next life
So please save us a chair

"When all you think of all day long is a pretty face inside a song, with a thought like that you can't go wrong about the girls of summer..."

Brit-

"In my daughter's eyes everyone is equal Darkness turns to light and the world is at peace This miracle God gave to me gives me strength when I am weak, I find reason to believe In my daughter's eyes...And when she wraps her hand around my finger, Oh it puts a smile in my heart Everything becomes a little clearer I realize what life is all about. It's hangin' on when your heart has had enough, It's giving more when you feel like giving up, I've seen the light, It's in my daughter's eyes...In my daughter's eyes I can see the future A reflection of who I am and what will be Though she'll grow and someday leave Maybe raise a family When I'm gone I hope you see how happy she made me For I'll be there, In my daughter's eyes"

"Although these changes have come, long may you run."

Be happy, be fair, be kind, and be safe.

I love you.

Will,

It seems just like yesterday
I'd hear those happy little feet, that rarely missed a single beat,
come racing down the hall
so fast you'd take a fall.
But, that never slowed you down and you rarely had a frown.
Your laughs and giggles we still hear,
even after all the years.
As you start this new life path,
we wish for you our son,
that you grow and learn a little with the fun.
You are the son
we always knew you could be,
and we'll hold you dear for eternity.

Aynsleee. Aynsalaa Aynsleeahaahaha:) I will always remember the stupid things that we did when we were freshmen, and everything you found out about people during I had a blast all 4 years. Don't forget cuff links, Stewart, Scotch shots, or the time we went Nags head + got stuck in the sand. Whatever this summer will be Long and I wish you good luck @ Long and I keep in touch! ♡, Maiday

This year was so much fun! * I can't taste it* Haha good times @ CBB I'm gonna miss you sooo much you definitely have to come back + visit soon! I'm soo sorry I got stunned." Have a great time @ college ... I know you will! I'll see you here in another year! Have an awesome summer & call me sometime. Love, Jimmy

Aynsley, so much to say but so little room to write. All I can say going from freshman year study block, Thank Skippy we're in 10th grade. Don't remember what class last year. But I would have to say you were the hottest boy at Perkins I ever had. well anyways your a great person found out some how to brighten up my day. 472-3409 Sarah

Colophon

The 2003-2004 edition of the Heritage contained 244 pages and was published by Jostens Printing and Publishing, Winston-Salem, North Carolina. The Jostens' representative was Mr. Kelly Morgan. Lifetouch National School Studios took the underclassmen and faculty portraits, the club pictures, and sports team and candid pictures. Some candids of sports and club activities were taken by Heritage staff members. Prestige Studios and Frederick Havens Photography took the senior portraits.

The fonts used within this book are as follows: all folio tabs, body copy, and captions used Palatino; all pages used AYTElegance for titles and subtitles.

Color was used throughout the whole book. Tool lines were used in the sports, clubademics, faculty, advertisement sections and the Colophon. Color screens were used in all sections. AYTElegance question marks were used in the folio tabs. Artwork for the folio tabs helped carry the theme throughout the book.

Heritage Staff

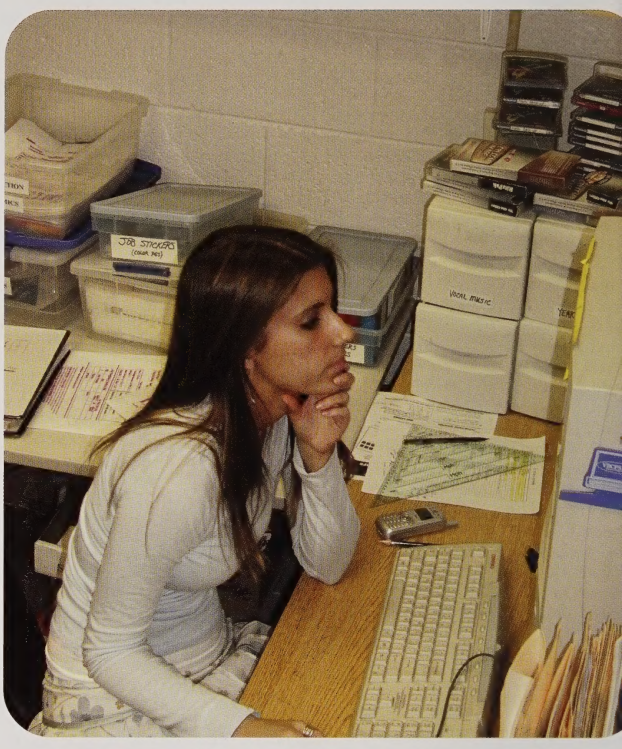
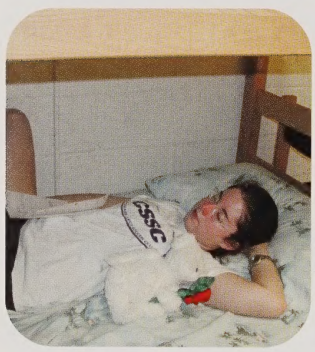
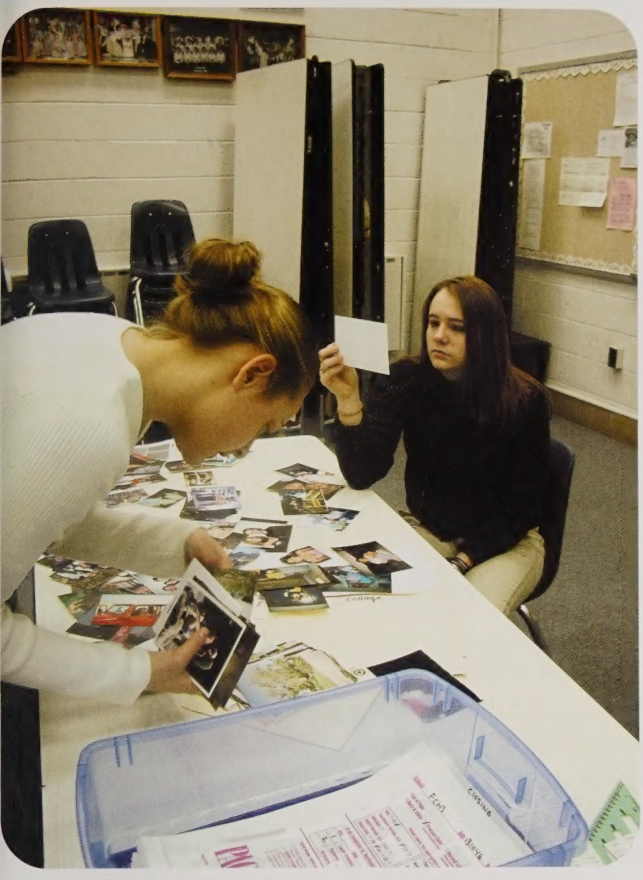
As Business Manager, Paige Hardee puts the advertisements together. Paige was excited to be creative and use color throughout the advertisement section for backgrounds and fonts.





Taking a quick break, Lisa Crapps enjoys a little shut-eye before going back to work. As Co-Editor, Lisa spent much of her time working at yearbook camp and during the school year.

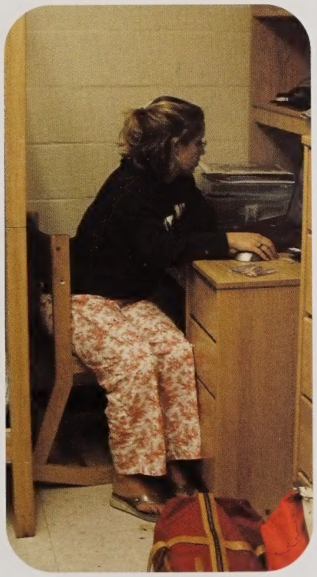
As the final deadline approaches, Ann-Marie Wilson and Brittany Swan work quickly to finish their spread. Ann-Marie and Brittany knew it was most important to meet the final deadline for the on time delivery of the book.



Participating in a fire drill, Lisa Crapps, Megan Glaves, Annelise Hudson, an Katie Ross wait for the firefighters to give the "okay." The four girl enjoyed spending a few days together during the summer at yearbook camp.

As a team effort, Holly Coriell and Patricia Old discuss pictures for a collage. Holly and Patricia finally decided on a candid that showed some action.

Working hard as always, Editor-In-Chief Megan Glaves puts the yearbook together. Megan designed the cover and each page to represent the school.



Selecting photos for the last collage, Patricia Old and Katie Lottinville sift through looking for the most interesting ones. Patricia and Katie had their spreads for the last deadline and enjoyed one more task to help complete the book.

It is so hard to believe that an exciting year is already over. It is amazing to think of what lies ahead of all of us. Our seniors are graduating and heading off to experience more in their futures. The juniors are ready for their senior year that is sure to be filled with exciting events. The sophomores are prepared to enter their junior year, where more thrills and expectations await them. The freshmen can now step out of their "young stage" and welcome new freshmen next year. The faculty and staff will continue to do their best at teaching and influencing us for years to come. You can always look back on this year and think of what we accomplished as a school or as individuals. I'm sure if we all were to ask the question, we would realize that we will not forget this great year. Congratulations to all for making the year of 2004 so great for everyone.

Aynsley,

Another year is over, lucky for you, it was your last in high school! You are a talented artist!! Thanks to Mrs. Kross who taught us how to shade! I really hate art now! It was so much fun with you joking the crap out of her though! esp when she would give me ideas and you would agree with her! Good Times! Have an awsome summer, good luck next year! Lets do something, art maybe

Yayy! Wow, I can't believe you're leaving me! NOTHING will be the same without you. Im going to miss you so much → We have had so → many memories: Steward, Mr purhing you out of the hot tub, running from the cops, random Ballet dancing, the cabana, "hey Na-Na," hi-hi-hi ya, heavyweights, spending the night at hi-mays, smores and so much more! Im going to miss you so much I LOVE YOU! ♡NANA

AYNSLEY!!

I am so glad that Schatti moved us together for the second semester!! What would my life be like without you? Like this :(or like this :O. We have so many memories & inside jokes that my mind boggles trying to remember them all. Not only have you made me laugh this year (I've got the ripped abs to prove it) but you were a great friend. No, not great... the best! For sure! That sounds really white. You listened to me cry about all of my many problems and you never complained. It makes me very sad to think of you going to Longwood & me going to Edinboro. I know we will be a long way away and there will be different stuff going on in our lives but you are such a good friend that I have to keep you! But thanks for making me laugh harder than I ever have & for making boring-ass oceanography my favorite class! I love you this ← → much!!

ohhhman, can you seriously believe we're graduating! We're finally mature, responsible seniors... ok not really but still! wow no more soccer together, I'm sad! No more odu car rides, pregame high fives, or quarter sized pancakes! I'm really going to miss you man! we had so much fun, I mean all the good times w/ Tuc, baby Ruthie, Lauren & Keaver, FBI shirts, orange soda, "Green" and goats. We never did get that goat we wanted! One day though! you def need to come & visit w/ me & narly carly at UVA, and you know I'm going to come and cheer you & sherill & "y" on at Longwood! Alright, you have to finish teaching me how to surf this summer! You know the numbers!

AB-

Hey love. WoW. I am sooo freaking glad I got to know you this year. You are so amazing. Practice wouldn't sucked w/o you. What will we do next year? I really just don't know if we'll make it (if I even get to play). Because of tennis... I'm gonna have to quit soccer again. But Tuc said he'll put me on the roster ☺. So.. wow. ..fun times at my house, Rafa's, Jose's ... Haha WoW. I can't believe you're leaving me already. We just got to know each other and I just fell head over heels for you. Haha. WoW. You're the best. You BETTER call me sooo much over the summer. I LOVE YOU.

Annster-This year was awesome! We've finally graduating! Thanks for making govt fun! Wouldn't have been the same w/out you! Best of luck at Longwood & best of luck in the future! Thanks for all the fun from memories! Party more than you study next year!

Trish

AB- YOU ARE THE FUNNIEST PERSON ALIVE. WE ARE GOING TO HAVE SO MUCH FUN GETTING DRUNK @ OCEAN EDDIES + GOING CLUBBIN' TOGETHER. I WILL MISS YOU IN THE SPRING SINCE WE WON'T BE PLAYING SOCCER ANYMORE. DON'T HURT YOURSELF NEXT YEAR DURING SOCCER + I HOPE YOU HAVE A GREAT TIME IN SCHOOL + KEEP CHEWIN GUM!

Hey Dork! Well can you believe graduation is right around the corner? I can't! Well, I hope you have a great summer and a even better time in college! I'm sure you will though! Love ya bunches,

-♥- Staci

AB→ i had so much fun getting to know you throughout the soccer season.. you are by far the funniest person I have ever met! ♥ you to death! you were the best senior ever! thanks for being just plain awesome to me.. you are the heck of a soccer player.. good luck in college.. thanks + everything

Aynsley -

From freshman year to now, I have never had the best time getting to know you. Now we go on to college, but I will try to keep in touch. You should come up to NYC so we can chill and party. I do hope you enjoy your summer and the next four years.

Your friend,

Jamie Smith

thanks for the encouragement on the field too.. it helped me out ALOT!!

you have no idea how much I love you and how much I look up to you. I hope I can kick ass like you when I'm a senior!

Aynsley

...ow, Public Speaking would not have ... same without you. You are ... hilarious + you put a smile on ... every day! Congratulations and ... at Longwood! Give me a call ... go to Croatan! ♥, Sarah McKinney
